Gallup-McKinley County Humane Society's cookbook is on sale at several locations throughout town, including the shelter, Mystique Salon & Day Spa, Gallup Lumber (Dee Ann Leyba), and our local chamber of commerce. Contact Sandra McKinney if you want to help sell copies. All profits go to support the shelter.

The legendary Ljubica "Luby" Grenko's famous holiday and wedding Croatian "Pogatis" is the highlight of the cookbook. Luby was born in 1914 and this recipe was taught to her by her Teta Franca. The Pogatis were first made in a coal stove. She originally sold them for $6.00 and in later years for $30. She made them until she was 89 years old. It is an all day event as you will see in the recipe. She would start at 5:00 a.m. and be completed at midnight, baking as many as 12 a day. One Christmas she sold $1800 worth. She kept her Pogatisa money in a coffee can. Luby's beautiful portrait with her adopted cat Max, taken by Lisa E. Rodriguez of Light Language Studio, is featured on the front cover of our cook book.

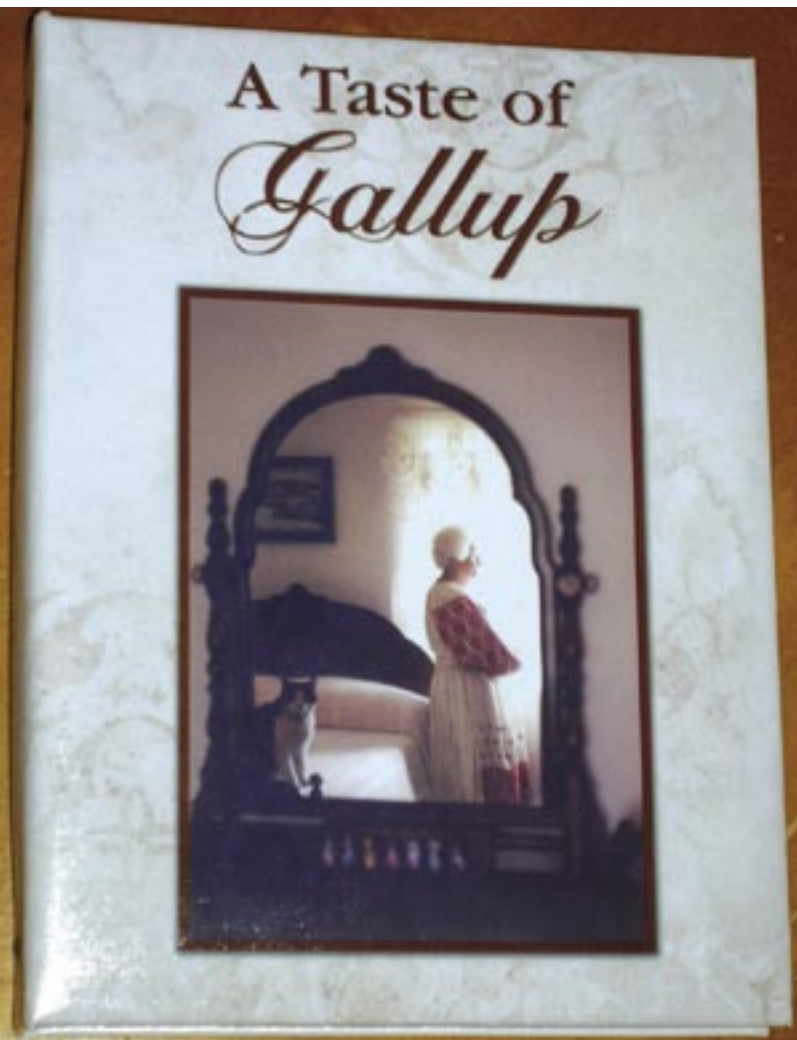

Misty Fairchild, Luby's granddaughter, will be giving a few free demonstrations for those who purchase a cookbook and want to learn how to make her grandma's famous Pogatisa. At 94 years young, Luby will oversee the classes to make sure Misty does it right. Check with the shelter in November for demonstration dates. There will be a limited number of sessions.

Included in the Humane Society book are many other delicious and original recipes including Slavic, Italian, Hispanic, Greek, Native American, Croatian, English, Irish, American, German, French, Asian, Oriental, Middle Eastern, Filipino and more.

The price of this beautiful book is $25 and all proceeds go to our local Humane Society. We do ship out of town with a postage and handling fee of $5.00. Send your orders to: Sandra McKinney, 112 Sunset Dr., Gallup, N.M. 87301 or call 505-722-0514 or print out an order form from our website: www.petfinder.com/shelters/NM64.html

2008 Bow Meow Event is Huge Success

No decorations were needed to make Bow Meow 2008 a beautiful event - nature took care of that detail and surrounded everyone with the beautiful pine trees, green grass and wild flowers at the ZLazyB Guest Ranch in McGaffey.

Activities kicked off with an early morning 3K Doggie Dawdle & Dash across the gorgeous countryside. Some of the dogs even took a quick dip in the pond to cool off before rejoining their owners.

K9 Fun Camp instructor, Terri Robinson, gave an informative hands-on dog training demonstration under a shady pine and the canine participants enjoyed learning how to earn praise and treats for their good behavior.

Doggie fashion designer, Laveta Marshall, dressed all the pooches in outfits ranging from sporty casual to the final runway bride and groom.

A silent auction, full of wonderful and diverse items donated by local merchants, helped raise funds. The live auction with the Vera Wang king size bed, donated by Castle Furniture, brought a lot of excitement and money to the event, selling for an amazing $1,300.00.

Special awards were given to Joe Milo and the Mason and Issacson law firm for their above and beyond support of the humane society fundraisers each year for the past 20 years.

A delicious dinner was served by ZLazyB and then the High Rollers band from Durango, Colorado played some awesome dancing music, satisfying old and young alike; even some of dogs were on the dance floor by the end of the night.

The reverse raffle ran smoothly with the help of C-Net owners, Jerry and Patty Herrera. The winner of the $10,000 grand prize was Morgan Newsom Sr. The $500 2nd place winner was Nellie and Daryl Long. The 3rd prize of $250 went to Sally Graham and Terry Proffitt won $100.

Sandra McKinney was the seller of the most tickets and received $500; the seller of the winning ticket was Donna Ward who received $250.

The big project which the Bow Meow 2008 profits will fund are 12 new outdoor runs on the west side of the building so the dogs can go outside into the fresh air and sunshine from their indoor kennels.

Thank-you to all who supported our biggest fundraiser of the year. It is this event that helps us take care of the thousands of homeless and abandoned animals that come into our facility each year. It helps us vaccinate them, feed them good quality food, medicate them and gives them a little extra time to find many of them good loving homes. We appreciate our community for its strong support.
